

Supplemental Figure 2. Method used by Pritchard et al. (2000) to determine the most likely number of cluster (K) inferred in STRUCTURE based on the microsatellite data. The “true” value for K is determined according to the highest mean  $\text{Ln}(K)$  which is followed by a plateau (K=10).